

JUDGE PARKER NOMINATED.

He Was Selected as the Democratic Standard Bearer on the First Ballot.

NOMINATION MADE UNANIMOUS.

The Democratic National Convention Adopted Lengthy Platform as Revised by William J. Bryan.

The Coliseum Friday Night Was Packed With People; Not An Aisle Could Be Seen, Being Packed With Spectators.

St. Louis, July 9.—5:39 a. m.—Alton B. Parker has been nominated for president. On the completion of the first ballot he received a total of 653 votes. Before the vote was announced, Idaho changed her six votes.

Washington changed from Hearst to Parker. This was followed by a motion by Champ Clark to make the nomination of Parker unanimous. Scenes of great enthusiasm followed. A monster American flag was unfurled from the dome of the building. The band struck up "Star Spangled Banner."

Patrick A. Collins, of Massachusetts, took the stand to second the motion to make the nomination unanimous. Parker's nomination was made unanimous.

Convention adjourned until 2 o'clock Saturday.

St. Louis, July 9.—The democratic national convention Friday night adopted a platform by a viva voce vote and listened to nominating speeches for president. Judge Alton B. Parker was named by Martin W. Littleton and William Randolph Hearst by D. M. Delmas. Both orators were applauded at length. Anti-Parker delegations attempted to create enthusiasm for their candidates but the Parker men remained undisturbed and unconcerned. Hearst delegates paraded the hall but the showing was small in comparison with the Parker procession which preceded it.

Nominating speeches for favorite son candidates and seconding speeches for both Parker and Hearst occupied the convention for several hours. The convention hall seats about 10,500 persons and from appearances hundreds more had been admitted. The floor and lower and upper galleries contained thousands of sweltering men and women oblivious to the fact that the crowded condition of the hall endangered every life.

The Coliseum Interior.

The Coliseum interior looked like a huge basin with bottom and sides formed by closely packed persons. Not an aisle could be seen. They were filled by spectators who could find no other place. Outside and in the crowds were the same, except for the fact those within the hall were satisfied and those without were turbulent.

As soon as the convention had been called to order Chairman Clark announced that the report of the committee on resolutions was ready. Senator Daniel read the report as chairman of the committee. The convention confusion was so great that not a word could be heard ten feet from the platform.

CLIMAX OF THE CONVENTION.

The Nomination of a Candidate For President.

The great climax of the convention—the nomination of a candidate for president—followed immediately upon the adoption of the platform.

Chairman Clark proceeded to that order of business without delay.

Alabama was called and yielded to New York. Mr. Littleton's speech immediately pleased his audience and when he concluded pandemonium reigned. Flags waved, banners were held aloft and great as was the crowd, delegates carrying the standards of the Parker states paraded through the convention, pushing, trampling and fighting all who obstructed their progress. The scene was one of tremendous confusion. Then was enacted a scene that recalled an incident of the democratic convention in Chicago which nominated William Jennings Bryan eight years ago.

California, a Hearst state, was next in order. D. M. Delmas, of that state, was recognized and there was some cheering as he made his way to the platform, but it was not prolonged. The hall was a bedlam when Mr. Delmas concluded.

At 1:23 Saturday morning Maine gave way to Missouri and Champ Clark, of that state, took the platform to place in nomination Senator Francis M. Cockrell, of Missouri, for the presidency. Clark was heartily cheered and brought out great laughter by his earnest and witty passage in turn.

Bryan Receives An Ovation.

When Nebraska was called at 2:25 there were loud cheers for Bryan. After many calls Bryan mounted a chair and received an ovation. Bryan announced that Nebraska yielded to Wisconsin.

"Massachusetts," called the clerk, and Patrick A. Collins, of Boston, made his way to the platform to nominate Richard Olney, of the Old Bay state.

When Wisconsin was called David S. Rose nominated Wall, of Wisconsin.

J. S. Williams, who was placed in nomination, withdrew his name early Saturday morning and seconded Parker. A nomination on first ballot is considered likely.

The Platform.

The following platform was adopted by the convention:

The Democratic party of the United States, in national convention assembled, declare devotion to the essential principles of the democratic faith which bring it together in party communion.

We, the delegates of the democratic party of the United States, in national convention assembled, declare our devotion to the essential principles of the democratic faith which bring us together in party communion.

Under the local self-government and national unity and prosperity were alike established. They underlaid our independence, the structure of our free republic, and every democratic extension, from Louisiana to California, and Texas to Oregon, which preserves faithfully in all the states the tie between taxation and representation. They yet inspire the masses of our people, guarding jealously their rights and liberties, and cherishing their fraternity, peace and orderly development. They remind us of our duties and responsibilities as citizens and impress upon us, particularly at this time, the necessity of reform and the rescue of the administration or government from the headstrong, arbitrary and

We approve the measure which passed the United States senate in 1896, by which a republican congress has ever since refused to enact, relating to contempt in Federal courts and providing for trial by jury in cases of indirect contempt.

We favor the liberal appropriations for the care and improvement of the waterways of the country. When any waterway like the Mississippi river is of sufficient importance to demand special aid of the government, such aid should be extended with a definite plan of continuous work until permanent improvement is secured. We oppose the Republican policy of starving home development in order to feed the greed for conquest, and the appetite for national "prestige" and display of strength.

Large reductions can easily be made in the annual expenditures of the government, without impairing the efficiency of any branch of the public service. We shall insist upon the strictest economy and frugality compatible with vigorous and efficient, civil, military and naval administration as a right of the people too clear to be denied or withheld.

2.—The enforcement of honesty in the public service, and to that end a thorough legislative investigation of those executive departments of the government already known to teem with corruption, as well as other departments suspected of harboring corruption, and the punishment of ascertained corruptionists without fear or favor or regard to persons. The persistent and deliberate refusal of both the senate and house of representatives to permit such investigation to be made demonstrates that only by a change in the executive and in the legislative department can complete exposure, punishment and correction be obtained. We condemn the action of the republican party in congress in refusing to prohibit an executive department from entering into contracts with convicted trusts or unlawful combinations in restraint of inter-state trade. We believe that one of the best methods of procuring economy and honesty in the public service is to have public officials, from the occupant of the white house down to the lowest of them return, as early as may be, to Jeffersonian simplicity of living.

3.—We favor the nomination and election of a president imbued with the principles of the constitution, who will set his face sternly against executive usurpation of legislative and judicial functions whether that usurpation be veiled under the guise of executive construction of existing laws, or whether it take refuge in the tyrant's plea of necessity or superior wisdom.

ALTON BROOKS PARKER.

spasmodic methods which distract business by uncertainty and pervade the public mind with dread, distrust and perturbation.

1.—The application of these fundamental principles to the living issues of the day constitutes the first step toward the assured peace, safety and progress of our nation. Freedom of the press, of conscience and of speech; equality before the law of all citizens; the right of trial by jury; freedom of the person defended by the writ of habeas corpus; liberty of personal contract, untrammelled by sumptuary laws; the supremacy of the civil over the military authority; a well disciplined militia; the separation of church and state; economy in expenditures; low taxes, that labor may be lightly burdened; the prompt and sacred fulfillment of public and private obligations; fidelity to treaties; peace and friendship with all nations; entangling alliances with none; absolute acquiescence in the will of the majority, the vital principle of republics—these are doctrines which democracy has established, approved by the nation, and they should be constantly invoked, and enforced.

We favor the enactment and administration of laws, giving labor and capital impartially their just rights. Capital and labor ought not to be enemies. Each is necessary to the other. Each has its rights, but the rights of labor are certainly no less "vested," no less "sacred," and no less "inalienable" than the rights of capital.

Constitutional guarantees are violated whenever any citizen is denied the right to labor, acquire and enjoy property or reside where interest of inclination may determine. Any denial thereof by individuals, organizations or governments should be summarily rebuked and punished.

We deny the right of any executive to disregard or suspend any constitutional limitation or limitation of obedience to the laws and respect for their requirements are alike the supreme duty of the citizen and the official. The military should be used only to support and to maintain the law. We unqualifiedly condemn its employment for the summary banishment of citizens without trial, or for the control of elections.

We favor the preservation, so far as we can, of an open door for the world's commerce in the orient, without unnecessary entanglement in oriental and European affairs, and without arbitrary, unlimited, irresponsible and absolute government anywhere within our jurisdiction. We oppose, as fervently as did George Washington himself, an indefinite, irresponsible, discretionary and vague absolutism and a policy of colonial exploitation, no matter where or by whom invoked or exercised; we believe, with Jefferson and John Adams, that no government has a right to make one set of laws for those at home, and a different set of laws, absolute in their character, for those "in the colonies." All men under the American flag are entitled to the protection of the institutions whose emblem the flag is; if they are inherently unfit for those institutions, then they are inherently unfit to be members of the American body politic. Wherever there may exist a people incapable of being governed under American laws in consonance with the American constitution, the territory of that people ought not to be part of the American domain. We insist that we ought to do for the Filipinos what we have already done for the Cubans. After it is our intent, as soon as it can be done wisely and safely for the Filipinos themselves and after amicable arrangements with them concerning naval stations, coaling stations and trade relations, and upon suitable guarantees of protection to all national and international interests to set the Filipino people on their feet free and independent to work out their own destiny.

The endeavor of the secretary of war, by pleading the government's endorsement for "promoters" in the Philippine islands to make the United States a partner in speculative exploitation of the archipelago, which was only temporarily held up by the opposition of democratic senators in the last session, will, if successful, lead to a permanent entanglement from what would be difficult to escape.

We congratulate our western citizens upon the passage of the measure known as the Newlands Irrigation act for the reclamation and reclamation of the arid lands of the west—a measure framed by a democrat, passed in the senate by a non-partisan vote and passed in the house against the opposition of almost all the republican leaders by a vote, the majority of which, was democratic. We call attention to this great democratic measure, broad and comprehensive as it is, working automatically throughout all time without further action of congress, until the reclamation of all the lands in the arid west capable of reclamation is accomplished, reserving the lands reclaimed for homesteaders in small tracts, and rigidly guarding against land monopolies, as an evidence of the policy of domestic development contemplated by the democratic party, should it be placed in power.

The democracy, when entrusted with power, will construct the Panama canal speedily, honestly and economically, thereby giving to our people what democrats have always contended for—a great inter-oceanic canal, furnishing shorter and cheaper lines of transportation and broader and less trammelled trade relations with the other peoples of the world.

The democratic party has been, and will continue to be, the consistent opponent of that class of tariff legislation by which certain interests have been permitted, through congressional favor, to draw heavy tribute from the American people. This monstrous perversion of these equal opportunities which our political institutions were established to secure has caused what may once have been infant industries to become the greatest combinations of capital that the world has ever known. These special favorites of the government have, through trust methods, been converted into monopolies, thus bringing to an end domestic competition which was the only alleged check upon the extravagant profits made possible by the protective system. These heavy tribute combinations, by financial assistance they can give now, control the policy of the republican party.

We denounce protection as a robbery of the many to enrich the few, and we favor a tariff limited to the needs of the government economically administered, and so leveled as not to discriminate against any industry, class or section, to the end that the burdens of taxation shall be distributed as equally as possible.

We favor a revision and a gradual reduction of the tariff by the friends of the masses, and for the commonweal, and not by the friends of its abolitionists and its discriminations, keeping in view the ultimate end of "equality of burdens and equality of opportunities," and the constitutional purpose of raising a revenue by taxation, to wit, the support of the Federal government in all its integrity and virility, but in simplicity.

We recognize that the gigantic trusts and combinations designed to enable capital to secure more than its just share of the joint product of capital and labor, and which have been fostered and promoted under republican rule, are a menace to beneficial competition, and an obstacle to permanent business prosperity.

A private monopoly is indefensible and intolerable. Individual equality of opportunity and free competition are essential to a healthy and permanent commercial prosperity and any trust, combination or monopoly tending to destroy these by controlling production, restricting competition or fixing prices, should be prohibited and punished by law. We especially denounce rebates and discrimination by transportation companies.

We pledge ourselves to insist upon the just and lawful protection of our citizens at home and abroad, and to use all proper measures to secure for them, whether native born or naturalized, and without distinction of race or creed, the equal protection of laws and the enjoyment of all rights and privileges open to them under the constitution and laws of the United States. We also favor the protection of friendship and commerce, and, if under existing treaties the right of travel and sojourn is denied to American citizens or recognition is withheld from American passports by any countries on the ground of race or creed, we favor the beginning of negotiations with the governments of such countries to secure, by treaties, the removal of these unjust discriminations.

We demand that all over the world a duly authenticated passport, issued by the government of the United States to an American citizen, shall be proof of the fact that he is an American citizen, and shall entitle him to the treatment due him as such.

We favor the election of United States senators by direct vote of the people.

We favor the admission of the territories of Oklahoma and the Indian territory. We also favor the immediate admission of Arizona and New Mexico as separate states and a territorial government for Alaska and Porto Rico.

We hold that the officials appointed to administer the government of any territory, as well as the district of Alaska, should be bona fide residents at the time of their appointment of the territory or district in which their duties are to be performed.

We demand the extermination of polygamy within the jurisdiction of the United States, and the complete separation of church and state in political affairs.

We denounce the ship subsidy bill, recently passed by the United States Senate, as an iniquitous appropriation of public funds for private purposes and a wasteful, illogical and useless attempt to overcome the obstructions to the growth and development of American commerce on the sea.

We favor the upbuilding of a merchant marine, without new or additional burdens upon the people, and without bounties from the treasury.

We favor liberal trade arrangements with Canada and with peoples of other countries where they can be entered into with benefit to American agriculture, manufactures, mining and commerce.

We favor the maintenance of the Monroe doctrine in its full integrity.

We favor the reduction of the army, and of army expenditure to the point historically demonstrated to be safe and sufficient.

The democracy would secure to the surviving soldiers and sailors and their dependents, generous pensions, not by an arbitrary executive order, but by legislation which a grateful people stand ready to enact.

Our soldiers and sailors, who defend with their lives the constitution and the laws, have a sacred interest in their just administration. They must, therefore, share with us the humiliation with which we have witnessed the exaltation of court favorites, without distinguished service, over the scarred heroes of many battles; or aggrandized by executive appropriations out of the treasuries of a prostrate people, in violation of the act of congress which it fixes the compensation and allowances of the military officers.

The democratic party stands committed to the principles of civil service reform, and we demand their honest, just and impartial enforcement.

We denounce the republican party for its continuous and sinister encroachment upon the spirit and operation of civil service rules, whereby it has arbitrarily dispensed with examinations for office in the interests of favorites, and employed all manner of devices to over-reach and set aside the principles upon which the civil service was established.

The race question has brought countless woes to this country. The calm wisdom of the American people should see to it that it brings no more.

To revive the dead and hateful race and sectional animosities in any part of our common country means confusion, distraction of business, and the re-opening of wounds now happily healed. North, south, east and west have but recently stood together in line of battle from the walls of Pekin to the hills of Santiago, and as sharers of a common glory and a common destiny, we should share fraternally the common burdens.

We, therefore, deprecate and condemn the Bourbon-like selfish and narrow spirit of the recent republican convention at Chicago which sought to kindle anew the embers of racial and sectional strife, and we appeal from it to the sober common sense and patriotic spirit of the American people.

The existing republican administration has been spasmodic, erratic, sensational, spectacular and arbitrary. It has made itself a satire upon the congress, the courts and upon the settled practices and usages of national and international law. It summoned the congress into hasty and futile extra session, and virtually adjourned it, leaving behind its flight from Washington uncalled calendars and unaccomplished tasks.

Of congress, without its authority, thereby usurping one of its fundamental prerogatives. It violated a plain statute of the United States, as well as plain treaty obligations, international usages and constitutional law, and has done so under pretense of executing a great public policy which could have been more easily effected lawfully, constitutionally, and with honor.

It forced strained and unnatural constructions upon statutes, usurping judicial interpretation, and substituting congressional enactment decree.

It withdrew from congress their customary duties of investigation, which have heretofore made the representatives of the people and the states the terror of evil doers.

It conducted a secretive investigation of its own, and boasted of a few sample convicts, while it threw a broad coverlet over the bureaus which had been chosen field of operative abuses and kept in power the superior officers under whose administration the crimes had been committed.

It ordered assault upon some monopolies but, paralyzed by its first victory, it flung out the flag of truce and cried out that it would not "run amuck"—leaving its future purposes clouded by its vacillations.

Conducting the campaign upon this declaration of our principles and purposes, we invoke for our candidates the support not only of our great and time-honored organization, but also the active assistance of all of our fellow citizens who, disregarding past differences upon questions no longer in issue, desire the perpetuation of our constitutional government as framed and established by the fathers of the republic.

One of the most telling points in Hon. John Sharpe Williams' address at the Democratic National convention was his reference to the plank in the Republican platform about the disfranchisement of the negro. According to the Republican view disfranchisement of a negro in Mississippi for ignorance is a horrible thing; but disfranchisement of a white man for ignorance in Republican Massachusetts or Connecticut is a part of New England "higher civilization."

A PROMINENT Republican in congratulating Senator Fairbanks on his nomination for Vice President is reported as saying:

Accept hearty congratulations. Your nomination will mean additional great strength to ticket in quarters where help is absolutely needed. Unless, however, Democrats, as usual, make awful blunder in their nominee we will have the biggest fight on our hands in history.

The reports from St. Louis indicate that the Democrats are not going to make a blunder this time. The Republicans may as well prepare for "the biggest fight" in their history.

WHAT'S THE TROUBLE?

THE New York Journal of Commerce in speaking of what is called "a lull" in railroad traffic, particularly in the West, says that railroad men have been somewhat disappointed because business is not picking up as rapidly as they had anticipated. They are now inclined to take a rather gloomy view of the outlook, says the same newspaper, and the further information is given that "farmers are resting on their oars, so to speak, as far as money matters are concerned, while merchants and manufacturers are extremely cautious." The largest jobbing interests report a very small volume of seasonable business. Collections are reported easy and money is plentiful, but railway traffic seems to grow no better. An explanation is needed in view of the claim from Republican sources of "unexampled prosperity."

PITH OF THE DEMOCRATIC KEY-NOTE.

Here are some of the pointed things Congressman John Sharp Williams said in his address as Temporary Chairman of the Democratic National convention in St. Louis:

Good legislation is ever claimed as Republican legislation when it was enacted by both parties.

The Republican platform, like the Republican Chairman, deals mainly in bores that the Republican party is and was directly responsible for every good thing that God sends to the United States.

If the ideals of the people find best expression in the Republican party then God save us.

The ex Secretary of War while Secretary was ex-officio the Emperor of the Philippine Islands.

General Joe Wheeler was more in evidence at San Juan than the strenuous Roosevelt himself, and Joe Wheeler was a Democrat.

Of course this Republican platform had to contain the usual historical untruths—to wit: That "A Democratic tariff has always been followed by business adversity—a Republican tariff by business prosperity."

The boast that the administration has executed the anti-trust laws is ridiculous.

Under a Democratic administration the rights of labor will be recognized as no less "vested," no less "sacred," no less "inalienable" than the rights of capital, and both will be dealt with justly and impartially, according to their very right.

Traffic movements by way of the Davis Island Dam, below Pittsburg, represent the volume of river commerce to and from the Pittsburg district on the Ohio. This season's tonnage shows substantial increase in spite of lateness in clearance of ice from the Ohio. The total freight was 2,334,729 tons to the end of May, of which 2,310,961 tons went down stream and 23,768 tons up stream. Of the downstream total 2,250,087 tons, or 98 per cent, were coal.

THAT YOUTHFUL COUPLE

Claim They Were Married at West Union, But Want Ceremony Again Performed.

[Enquirer, July 7th.]

A youthful couple applied to the Probate Court yesterday for a marriage license and told a strange story. They were Jesse Morford and Temple Brandenburg of Winchester, Ky. He said he was twenty-one and she nineteen, but she did not appear to be more than fourteen. His story was that he and the girl eloped two weeks ago from their home at Winchester and went to Aberdeen, Ohio, where they enlisted the services of 'Squire Newall, who went with them to West Union to get a license. He says that Newall got the license, but that he did not sign any record nor was he sworn by the clerk who is supposed to have issued the license. Newall told him, he says, that the license was all right, and performed the ceremony, and they returned to their home at Winchester and have been living together since.

His father was not satisfied and went with him to West Union to get a certificate of the marriage. The clerk refused to give a certificate because he feared there was something irregular about the matter. Then the young man's father told him he would have to come here and be married over again. That is what they wanted to do. But as it seemed apparent that the girl was not more than fourteen, and at any rate was not a resident of this county, the license was refused and they were told to go to Kentucky and see what they could do there by having a guardian appointed for the girl and thus get a consent to their marriage so the ceremony could be performed. This advice was given them because they had been living together and it was necessary that something be done for the sake of the girl's honor. They started for Covington, but had not applied for a license up to a late hour last night. She is a daughter of J. W. Bradenberg, a carpenter of Winchester.

This couple came to Maysville two weeks ago and after being refused a marriage license proceeded to West Union. They claimed while here that their home was in Jackson, Breathitt County.

Prof. Hicks in his forecasts for July says: "From the 4th to the 6th we may reasonably expect a decided rise in temperature, ending in thunder and rain storms. A wave of excessively warm weather may be looked for about the 11th to the 14th, culminating in many threatening storms. Heavy hail storms, especially to the west and north, will most likely attend these disturbances, in which event temporary change to much cooler may naturally be expected. The 12th, 13th and 14th are the days on which the culminating crisis of this period is to be looked for."

HEAVY RAIN.

Storm Friday Afternoon Amounted Almost to a Cloudburst—Considerable Damage Done.

The storm that visited this section Friday afternoon was the worst in many months. The downpour began about 3 o'clock and continued with occasional intermissions until 6 o'clock, accompanied by a vivid electrical display and heavy thunder. The total precipitation during the afternoon and night was 2.03 inches, close to two inches falling in three hours.

The storm center appears to have been just south of Maysville. William Kubel, who lives on the Lee farm, had about 200 shocks of wheat carried away by Wells' creek. It is reported every water-gate on same stream was swept into the North Fork. Limestone Creek was out of its banks. The abutments of the bridge near the watering trough on Fleming pike were badly damaged. The greatest damage, however, was to the crops and farm lands, which were badly washed.

Mr. George B. Caywood, who married Miss Bertha Daulton, is reported quite ill with rheumatism at his home in Morehead.

Policeman Ryan is now on day duty, succeeding Policeman Senteney, who goes back to the night force. This was the understanding the first of the year. Mr. Senteney has a splendid record to his credit.

Georgetown (O.) News - Democrat: "John Lovel, of Maysville, passed through Georgetown Tuesday on his way to Cincinnati. He has come this way several times since the O. R. and C. has been in operation and says he enjoys the trip greatly."

William Mesmer, a brother of Mrs. Kennan Toup of Burlington, Iowa, disappeared a few days ago while at Moline, Ill., and his body was afterwards found in the Mississippi river at Davenport. His health had been failing and it is thought he committed suicide. He was an expert operator of the linotype machine, and for years had been one of the Burlington Hawkeye's most valued employees.

Col. L. H. Williams of Ripley was in town Friday morning approaching fair at that place. He says no effort is being made at present to extend the Ohio River and Columbus Railroad to Aberdeen; that it will probably be the company's aim to first extend the road to Washington C. H., where connection will be made to all points north, east and west. The road is doing a big business between Ripley and Sardinia.

'Squires Samuel T. Farrow, Frederick Dreesel, J. J. Thompson and Robert Lloyd, members of the Mason County Fiscal Court, were in Lexington Thursday making an inspection of the Fayette County Infirmary, getting plans for a similar institution for this county. The committee has also inspected the institutions of Bourbon and Campbell counties. They were very much pleased with the Fayette institution and may recommend to the Fiscal Court that buildings patterned after those be built in this county.

Garnishee Law Changed.
The new garnishee bill passed by the last Legislature and which became a law last week without the Governor's signature, repeals the provision of Section 1701, Kentucky Statutes, which with reference to exceptions from attachment reads: "Provided, That the exemption of $50 shall not apply to debts contracted for food, fuel, medicine, raiment or house rent for the family." Under the old law the wages of a person, earning less than $50 a month, were not subject to attachment unless for food, raiment, fuel, etc. Now the exemption for debts of that character is the same as the exemption for any other debts. Under the present law unless a person earns more than $50 a month his wages cannot be attached for any debt.

Dr. C. J. Moffett is a graduate of medicine and has as much right to prescribe for the sick as any physician, and gives to mothers his "TEETHINA" as the best remedy they can use for their teething children. "TEETHINA" aids digestion, regulates the bowels, overcomes and counteracts the effects of the summer's heat and makes teething easy.
